

NEWTOWN NEWS

Newtown Neighborhood Association

www.newtownstaunton.org

Staunton, Virginia

February, 2007

Newtown Christmas Tree Walk Delights Staunton

Newtown was on display for two holiday tours this year, Historic Staunton Christmas Open House and the Newtown Christmas Tree Walk. The homes of Judy Mosedale and Brandon Collins, Lynn Sisson, Elizabeth and Michael Dyjak on Fayette St., Dante de Tablan on Madison Pl., Nancy and John Spahr on Frederick St. and Diane and Braxton Nagle on Washington St. were featured. Below Braxton Nagle welcomes a tour goer.

Meet Staunton's Finest

'Meet the Staunton Police 'A' Squad' on Monday, February 26, at 6:30 p.m. in Council's Chambers in City Hall. The 'A' Squad will make a short power point presentation on home security and then open up the meeting for an exchange of concerns and ideas. The Goal: increase cooperation to help improve our Newtown Neighborhood and develop future projects. Bring the children! Light refreshments. Meet vendors. Please, don't miss this opportunity!

Performing Arts Series in Newtown

On January 20, Dante de Tablan, 122 Madison Pl., hosted a house concert with Newtown musician, Barbara Martin. Over 50 music fans enjoyed the show. Dante plans more concerts in his home featuring a variety of styles of music.

See page 2—Winter Social, March 4

New Businesses Thrive and More to Arrive!

Newtown Bakery, 906 W. Beverley, is off to a great start. Arrive early or order your bread ahead, as they often sell out. Hours of operation are Tuesday—Friday, 7:30 am—5 pm, Saturday, 8 am—2 pm, Sunday, 9 am—2 pm—pastries only. 885-3799

Local Color, 300 W. Beverley, fresh flowers & flower-themed art by local artists, is off to a booming start. They are available for floral arrangements for special occasions. Find them on Tuesday through Saturday from 9:30 am to 5:30pm. 886-1730

A wonderful tea shop and restaurant, Twisted Branch Tea Bazaar, on the Charlottesville downtown mall is planning to open in the Stonewall Jackson School Building, 219 W. Beverley St. The teahouse will feature desserts, simple international cuisine and a gallery of Moroccan rugs. Stay tuned!

NNA's New Address in Cyberspace

Webmaster Bob Craycroft has us online with a new name:

newtownstaunton.org

Check out our website. It's full of photos, neighborhood news and upcoming events. Email us at info@newtownstaunton.org

Join NNA for only $5 a year!

Use the form below and give to Sandra McNeill, 115 Church St., 885-6689

Name:

Address:

Phone Number/email:

promoting the vitality, safety, integrity & community of the Newtown Neighborhood